The 2005 MSC Lady Angler Tournament was a big success. Finishing 1st was Claire Riley with two fish weighing 19 pounds, 2 ounces. Claire also had the event's biggest striper, a 16 pound, 2 ounce lunker! Claire fished with Townsend Wessinger.

In 2nd place was Ann Alewine with a catch of 14 pounds, 2 ounces. Ann fished with her son Harold "Jon Boy" Alewine and daughter-in-law Debbie. A few ounces behind was 3rd place finisher Jennifer "Mrs. Fogman" Lindler, fishing with her husband, with two weighing 13 pounds, 15 ounces.

The Smallest Legal Creel winner for the tournament was Rianne Thomas with 3 pounds, 6 ounces fishing with Lee "Catchall" Thomas.

Lee Thomas, event organizer, said, "The weather cooperated and all who attended had a great time." Thanks to Lee, Kathy and all others who helped for their hard work. A special thanks to Donna Gardner Builders Inc. for sponsoring the 2005 tournament.

October 2004 Tournament...

On a blustery day that brought 30+ mph winds, Arthur Simmons blew away the rest of the field with three fish weighing 23-2. Arthur reportedly caught 60 fish on artificials.

In second place with three weighing 21-8 was Lorraine Buckwell, who also had the AC/Delco Voyager Lunker, which weighed 10-3. In third place was Billy DuRant with his limit weighing 18-2.

Overall, 49 paid. 22 anglers weighed 57 fish at an average of 5.6 pounds each.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER...

Once more MSC members had a chance to take their spouses, girlfriends, mothers and daughters on a great day of fun, fellowship and fishing on beautiful Lake Murray. From all reports everyone caught fish and had a great time. Congratulations to all participants and especially a big thank you to Lee, Kathy and all others who volunteered to truly make this an enjoyable day. Last but not least, all of this would not have been possible without our sponsor, Donna Gardner Builders. Thanks Donna...and maybe next year you can talk Wynn into letting you fish!!

With several officers not seeking re-election, MSC is looking for new faces to step up to the plate and guide our club for 2006. Our club is only as good as its volunteers and that goes for officers too. You won't be alone nor asked to do something you do not want to do. As I look around each meeting, I see the fun you're having eating and sharing conversations. But it's just as much fun and a lot more rewarding to take an active role leading our club. To take an active role, contact Jim Goller or myself, as we need to be getting our nominations in for 2006 by next month.

Our banquet is not too far off and I hope that we will have 300 in attendance. Our location will be Saluda Shoals Park where we will have ample room. Our menu from Parklane Seafood sounds great, so begin to round up your party and mark January 14, 2006 on your calendars today!

NO ANGLER LEFT BEHIND IN 2005.

Marshall West, President
